V BAG (feat. TK The Artist)(LYRICS):

-INTRO:

Yeah! Hip Hop is green! New York City vegans. Worldwide vegans, where yall at? (you got a bag with bodies in it)

-CHORUS:

You got a bag with bodies in it. I got a bag with life for my body in it. Spent all my cash, if it ain't vegan, more and more animals you are killing. Lil' mama so hot. She only eat plants, she stay away from the trash. Get it organic. Fuck up a bag, your body will thank you for that. Groceries, I got nothing but my vegan eats. Got everything to fulfill all my vegan needs(plant based). You don't understand, you can't comprehend when I'm kicking my veganese. Cruelty free we eating in peace. We 'bout to have us a feast.

-VERSE1:(TK)

Rethink that protein. They had a life and got feelings too. Climate change and torture, all(all) of that will be on you. You can catch me outside eating some fresh fruits. Grown straight out of the dirt, that's mother earth's roots. Dead body eaters got opinions. All my vegans speak truth(V gang). Why not speak from the heart (every)everytime i'm in the booth. Oh they say it don't sell then rap about guns they don't shoot. I'll balance and take the challenge, everyday to save the youth(we live this). Looking for more strong minded and brave vegans I can recruit. Turning this whole world vegan, giving Babylon the boot. Rappers out here talking bout "molly, percocets, molly, percocets", when people got meat rotting in their colons eating dead flesh. 15yr olds getting heart attacks. Sleep sheep ignoring facts. Obesity at an all time(diabetes). The same people eating big Mac's(cancer). Fried chicken, bloody steaks. I got plants on my plates. My minerals all plant based. Get them dead bodies out of my face!

-VERSE2:

I keep the real on me, and you'll get the real from me if I catch you out here strutting, wearing fur fronting like it ain't nothing. Ain't shit cute about wearing torture. Shit! I'mma start to question what your fucking mama and your fucking papa taught ya. I was born to do this, I see it now. I'm bonafide. I'mma wake you up, I'mma take you there and you can keep the credit for the ride. Haters! Philly's back on that bull, but not literally. The only animal that I'm down to climb is my vegan queen, and i do that there with hostility. G-A-N-G, we do what we do till the cage free. And you can't get down with the crew if you ain't about it or lazy. Mama made me, hood raised me(wastlanz), and I ain't been the same since i became an ARA and the AR game changed me. Facts baby! Speaking of babies, did you know? That the dairy industry is killing babies every time you pour a little bit of milk on ya cereal(on ya cereal). If that's the case then go get you some almond milk(milk,milk). Nobody buys, nobody dies, no blood is spilled(spilled,spilled).
